LYNCH LAW ENFORCED

Chadwick, an Alleged Murderer, Hanged.

NO ATTEMPT AT SECRECY.

County Officers Were Warned of the Proposed Work.

COLFAX, Wn., Jan. 10.—Marshall Chadwick, the suspected murderer of young Hayden, near Farmington, on the night of October 22, was taken from jail by a mob and hanged to the west wall of the court house.

There was a suspicion that a mob was collecting, but the officers made no preparations to resist. The train from Spokane arrived an hour late, nearly 10 o'clock. A few minutes afterward the prisoners in the jail saw a body of masked men march up Mill street east of the jail.

Jailer H. B. Treff, who was the only officer about the courthouse, was awakened and informed that an officer wanted a prisoner locked up. He dressed and came out and was confronted by masked men with cocked revolvers. Treff was informed that the mob wanted to hang "Blackie" Chadwick, Marshall and "Dakota Slim" McDonald, and demanded that Treff give up the jail keys. The officer led the way to the sheriff's office, opened the safe, got the keys and gave them to his captors.

Twelve members of the mob then entered the jail, taking Treff with them. They first went in the woman's wing, where "Dakota Slim" was confined. When the mob came to the cell door "Slim" protested his innocence, and said:

"Take 'Blackie,' who admits his guilt, and if he implicates me I will go."

The mob thought this only fair, and went to the east wing of the jail, the cell wing proper. "Blackie's" cell was unlocked and the inmate awakened. He had only time to say: "Don't hurt me. Before God I am innocent." When a member of the mob struck him a heavy blow over the head with an iron bar, stunning him.

A rope was then fastened around "Blackie's" neck and he was carried and dragged out of the jail and up the narrow stairs to the superior court room and to one of the west double windows, where a rope was tied around a standard between the windows and "Blackie's" body was pitched out head foremost at the end of an eight-foot rope and left dangling against the court house wall in plain view of people on Main street.

While this was being done, part of the mob went to "Dakota Slim's" cell again. During their absence, the prisoner had stuffed the keyhole of the cell door with rags and fastened a sharp knife on the end of a broomstick. With this spear he kept jabbing through the barred door of the cell, preventing any one approaching the door to pick the rags out of the keyhole. His cell had two doors, the inner one of solid steel and behind this he protected his body.

Finally, a member of the mob, catching a glimpse of Slim's shoulders aimed and fired at him, the bullet splitting on the door and one portion striking the wall outside the cell. The larger half of the bullet passed through "Slim's" sleeve, cutting the skin and striking the wall, splattering and rebounding, four small pieces striking him on the breast.

"Slim" fell to the floor, shoving the solid door to with his foot at the same time, and explaining "My God, they have killed me." One member of the mob was heard to say, "Let's be sure we've killed him." Another said "Let's give him another shot and finish him." Finally, the mob decided Slim was dead and left.

The mob was at the jail less than 10 minutes when left. They turned Treff loose. "Blackie's" body was not cut down until about 3 o'clock. The mob's visitation was the quietest event of the night. Treff, with rooms directly beneath the jail, did not know of any disturbance until Treff told them after the body was taken down.

Sheriff Sims left for Spokane. He is expected to return by noon. Nothing is being done to learn the identity of the mob. The people generally applaud its action.

Negroes Lynched.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 10.—Four colored men have been lynched in the vicinity of Bearden, Ark., within the last few days. Two were rapists and two murderers. The rapists, Devoye and Huntley, were swung up near Harlow Mill ranch, three miles north of Bearden, while the murderers met their fate near Little Rock, a few miles south of Bearden. The work was done by separate mobs.

Devoye and Huntley were lynched for a crime committed a year ago. At that time they attempted to outrage Mrs. Paine, a respectable white woman in Bearden. Both escaped, and remained out of the vinity for twelve months. A few days ago Devoye again put in an appearance, and was promptly arrested. A mob gathered, and Devoye barely escaped at that time. He was questioned regarding the whereabouts of Huntley, but at first refused to give any information. He stated finally that Huntley was working at Anderson's mill, on the Cotton Belt railroad, 25 miles north of Fordyce. Devoye was left in charge of a guard, while the remainder of the mob went to Anderson's mill to get Huntley. They found him and started away with him, but they never reached Bearden with the negro. He was lynched soon after leaving Anderson's mill. When the mob returned to Bearden they gave out the report that Huntley could not be found. Devoye was then placed in a wagon and the mob started with him to Harlow Mill ranch, where the crime was committed. In order that his victim might identify him.

When the mob left Bearden with Devoye, the prisoner was chained to the bottom of the wagon and a heavy guard surrounded the vehicle. Escape under such circumstances was impossible. When taken before Mrs. Paine, the old lady positively identified Devoye as one of the negroes who attempted an assault upon her. The posse then drove a short distance away, and, after placing a rope around his neck, compelled Devoye to stand erect in the wagon. The vehicle was then driven from under him and the rapist was left hanging in midair. A few shots were fired into his body, and the mob returned to Bearden.

The other men lynched were accused of the murder of Bart Frederick, a water pumpman of the Cotton Belt, at Kingsland. Frederick was murdered and his pockets rifled and his watch taken. It was through the watch that a clue to the identity of the murderers was secured.

Burned at the Stake.

LITTLE ROCK, Jan. 10.—A special to the Gazette from Fort Smith says: Justice in a more horrible form than that meted out to Henry Smith, at Paris, Tex., was administered by a mob on the Oklahoma border Friday to J. Marcus McGieley and Palmer Simpson, two Senators in the jail saw charged with murder, their victim being Mrs. James Simons, a respectable farmer's wife living in Oklahoma. The crime was a most revolting one, and the criminals were punished in a most revolting manner. Mrs. Simons was outraged and murdered. The body was horribly mutilated. The murderers' mutilation of Mrs. Simons so enraged the neighbors that nearly the entire populace turned out to hunt down and punish the guilty parties.

The trail led the posse to the home of McGieley, near Maude, a small town in the Seminole nation, where McGieley and Simpson were arrested. After securing their prisoners, the mob set fire to McGieley's house and barn and did not leave until they saw all of his earthly possessions reduced to ashes.

The prisoners were then carried back across the line into Oklahoma territory, and near the scene of their crime they were executed by Judge Lynch's orders. In the most horrible manner that human minds and human hands could devise. They were burned at the stake.

The Indians met their doom with the usual stoicism of their race. After life was extinct, the mob allowed the fires to die down, and then quietly disappeared to their homes. No secret was made of the fact that the Indians had been burned to death, and this morning their charred bodies, lying beyond recognition, were found buried in the ashes of their funeral pyre. Everybody in the vicinity tries to know that the Indians were executed for the murder of Mrs. Simons, but everybody appears to be entirely ignorant of the individuals who composed the mob.

Heinous Crime.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—John H. Peppin, a well-known man of this city who for 15 years has been connected with a local grocery firm, has been arrested for criminal assault. His alleged victim is an 11-year-old girl with whose family Peppin has been boarding. According to statements made by three men, who saw the act, Peppin tried to lift the child out of a wagon in which he was taking her for a ride, when interrupted by them. The men drove into town and informed the district attorney of what they had seen, and Detective Fisher was sent to investigate.

Her mother called the little girl into a room and in the presence of the detective questioned her. The child at once stated that Peppin had taken her from the wagon after the three men had left, and assaulted her, making her promise to maintain silence and he would give her all the candy she wanted. Further investigation by her mother disclosed unmistakable evidence of the truth of the child's story.

Peppin's arrest followed, and he now lies in the county jail, failing to furnish $5000 bail. The child's father, on hearing the story, started to find Peppin with the intention of killing him, but the officers located him first.

Drowned a Child.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Jan. 10.—James Smith a boy, informed the police that early today an unknown man broke a hole in the ice on the Missouri river, and shoved a small child into the opening. The act was witnessed by a man, who, after telling Smith to notify the police of the affair, followed the murderer across the river to the Kansas side. Neither the pursuer nor the murderer have been found, and the body of the child has not been recovered.

She Shot Herself.

EGGERS, Or., Jan. 10.—The mystery shrouding the shooting of Daisy Dillard last Tuesday night, has been solved. On being confronted by the evidence gathered, she made a confession that she did the deed in a fit of despondency. She is of good family and is highly respected. Several parties have been suspected and her confession brings relief to those who knew they were under the eyes of the police.

Gratifying Results.

INTERESTING EXPERIMENTS WITH THE NEW STOMACH REMEDY.

Not a Patent Medicine, But a Safe Cure for All Forms of Indigestion.

The results of recent investigation have established, beyond question, the great value of the new preparation for indigestion and stomach troubles; it is composed of the digestive acids, pepsin, bismuth, Golden Seal and similar stomachics, prepared in the form of 20 grain lozenges, pleasant to the taste, convenient to carry when traveling, harmless to the most delicate stomach, and probably the safest most effective cure yet discovered for indigestion, sour stomach, loss of appetite and flesh, nausea, sick headache, palpitation of heart, and the many symptoms arising from imperfect digestion of food. They cure because they cause the food to be promptly and thoroughly digested before it has time to sour, ferment and poison the nervous system.

Over six thousand people in the state of Michigan alone in 1894 were cured of stomach troubles by Staur's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Full sized packages may be found at all druggists at 50c., or sent by mail on receipt of price from Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. Send for free book on stomach diseases.
